Re: CC Docket No. 92-77, Billed Party Preference, Phase II Proceeding

Dear Mr. Caton:

I am a member of The Gardner Fellowship Group, and an inmate at the North Central Correctional Institution of the Massachusetts Dept. of Correction. I am writing to express my support for Billed Party Preference in regard to the above-named CC Docket number.

As an inmate in a correctional institution, it is very important to me that I maintain communications with my friends and family members. However, because of the unreasonably high cost of collect telephone calls from inmate-only telephones, maintaining such contact is difficult. My friends and, in particular, my family members are forced to pay these high costs from collect calls in order to keep in touch with me. These family members did not commit any crime; unless you consider maintaining contact with a convict to be a crime, that is. I can see no reason for correctional facilities to be exempted from any Billed Party Preference that may be adopted by the FCC, other than for the correctional facilities to be able to continue raking in the huge amounts of money they make in commissions from the telephone companies for the exclusive right to provide inmate telephone services.

I urge you to keep inmate telephone services as part of any Billed Party Preference that may be adopted by the FCC, and I urge you to adopt this proposed new regulation.

Sincerely,

Robert Shell

RIGHT TO DISPUTE YOUR BILL

If for any reason, you believe your bill is wrong, you may contact the appropriate company at the telephone number shown on the itemization of account page for each company and explain the amount you believe to be in error or the reason you believe there has been an error. IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED CALL THE CUSTOMER RELATIONS OFFICE TOLL FREE ON 1-800-555-5000.

If, when you receive the decision of the Telephone Company Representative, you still consider the bill wrong or are not satisfied, you have the right to appeal to the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities by calling or writing the Department to request a hearing. Call or write: Consumer Division, Department of Public Utilities 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 02202, telephone (617) 727-3531. You may call toll free 1-800-392-6066 if you live outside Metropolitan Boston.

Your telephone service will not be shut off for failure to pay the portion of your bill which you are disputing. If you need more time to pay, call the New England Telephone Company at the business office number shown on The New England Telephone Company's page 1 of this bill.

An explanation of customer rights and responsibilities is contained in the introductory pages of the Telephone Directory.
